THE WEATHER, ETC.

FOR THE MONTH OF MARCH 1905.

Summary of Daily Observations.

TEMPERATURE:

Mean maximum 72.8°. Mean minimum 50.4°. Mean temperature of the month 61.6°. Highest temperature 83° on 27th, Lowest degree 39° on 10th. Greatest daily range, 35° on the 3rd. Least daily range 10° on the 9th. The mean temperature of the month was 4.4° above average. There was no killing frost.

PRECIPITATION.

Total rainfall of the month was 7.49 inches. Greatest in 24 hours, 3.62 inches, from about 9:00 o'clock p. m. 17th, to about 7:30 o'clock a. m. 18th. There were 10 days with .01 inch or more precipitation, of which there were 3 heavy rains, just 10 days apart. The first 1.85 inch on the 8th; the second 3.62 inches on the 18th; the third, 1.83 inch on the 23th. Precipitation was 1.94 inch above average. The dews were very heavy. There was no snow, no sleet, no hail, during the month.

WINDS AND STORMS.

Prevailing winds were easterly, ranging from N. E. to S. E. on 16 days; the rest of the month quite variable, but mostly westerly. A high south wind occurred on the 27th, p. m. A terrific electric storm all night, from about 9:00 p. m. 17th, to 7:30 a. m. 18th.

CHARACTER OF THE DAYS:

There were 5 clear days; 16 partly cloudy days, and 10 cloudy days. ["Clear" signifies, sky cloudless to three tenths overcast; "partly cloudy," more than three-tenths to seven-tenths overcast; and "cloudy" over seven-tenths overcast.] There was but one cloudless day. First week the mornings were very smoky. It was a very cloudy month; the amount of cloudiness being, at least 75 per cent, between sunrise and sunset. Nevertheless, with all the drawbacks of an unusually cold February, and wet March, vegetation is "booming", as if to make up for lost time.

And we have the promise still, that was made when the great deluge ceased, "While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, shall not cease."

Yours Truly

JOHN M. SMITH,
Jefferson, Texas, April 1st, 1905.

The Difference in Cost

between a good and a poor baking powder would not amount for a family's supply to one dollar a year. The poor powder would cause doctors' bills many times this.

Dr. PRICE'S cream Baking Powder

is the most economical in the end, because it goes further in leavening and insures perfect, wholesome food.

When ordering of the grocer always call for Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder by name for good health and good food. It makes the finest cake, puddings, flapjacks, biscuits and bread.

NOTE.—There are many imitation baking powders which are sold from five cents to twenty-five cents a pound. They should be carefully avoided as they are made from alum and are unhealthful.

School Trustees Election.

On last Saturday an election for school trustees, both white and colored, was held in the county. For district No. 3, white, B. J. Benefield, J. N. Thomas and G. W. Brown were candidates—two to be elected. Brown and Benefield were elected.

There were four colored candidates—Tommie Jackson, Frank Johnson, A. R. Rutherford and Chas. Ray. Jackson and Johnson were elected. We have not heard how the other districts come out.

Ordinary household accidents have no terrors when there's a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the medicine chest. Heals burns, cuts, bruises, sprains. Instant relief. For sale by The J. F. Crow Drug Co.

Must Be Sober.

The Denison Herald says that the M. K. & T. officials have taken concerted action lately in discharging men charged with intoxication and as a result several have been let out within the past few days. In times gone by a little drunk once in awhile was overlooked if the offender's record was good, but good records do not count now, when a charge of intoxication is pending.

The result is that sobriety is beginning to be shown in all branches of the service.—Greenville Banner.
